Well, we've done it! After numerous attempts in the last 8 years or so, we've finally gone ahead and produced a christmas album! Hurray! Many thanks as usual I'd like to say to Yann and Manuel for all their work and effort - and also to Alexs and Alex for even writing a new song especially for this record. A big thank you to the whole Zooland team, especially Schnu and also to Lina for all the fab photos and artworks she has done. And not forgetting Frank the Tank!!

This album is particularly special to me, as my dad, David Horler, did us the honour and played trombone on two of the tracks. It was a marvelous experience being in the studio with him and amazing to have these songs on an album for all time. I believe it might even be played during christmas dinner at my family's house this year! Whahey!

Last but certainly not least, thanks to all the Cascada fans out there who incredibly seem to grow in number by the minute and still support us like mad!! I love being able to stay in touch with you via internet and meet so many of you personally on tour. Your messages, letters, pictures and gifts mean the world to me and the Cascada team would be lost without you. Do enjoy this album, be of good cheer and have a merry christmas!

Lots of love,
Nat xxx

A photograph of Natalie Horler lying on her side on a white, fluffy surface. She has long, wavy, light brown hair and is wearing a light pink, short-sleeved top with a ruffled shoulder and a dark, sequined skirt. She is smiling and looking towards the camera, with her hands clasped together near her face. A tattoo is visible on her left forearm.
